James Leslie Elmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rimer, went to Fort Ethan Al-len Tuesday, and on Wednesday he enlisted as quartermaster sergeant of the 43d regiment of infantry which will start for the Philippines in two months. Mr. Elmer occupies the same position with the 43 regiment that he did with the Vermont nt on its return from Chickamanga. He has had three years of experience in the regular army, enlisting in 1891. He spent the first three months in drill at the Jefferson barracks at St. Louis, Mo., after which he was for three months instructor in Fort Brown, Texas, and the remainder the time clerk in the office of Major Wagner, commander of the fort and of the 5th cavairy. The commander of the 43d regiment is Col. Murray, formerly captain of the 3d artillery and instructor in military science at Yale university, to whom Mr. Elmer was recommended by Gen. Peck and Gen. Estey. Mr. Elmer's term of enlistment is one year and ten months.

Company I held a competitive drill at the armory last evening to choose two corpor-als, and Ethan Hescock and Curtis Robinson were the successful candidates. Hescock was a member of the marine corps on the Indiana when Cervera's fleet was de stroyed, and Robinson was with company I at Chickamauga last summer. George Whitney has resigned as first sergeant, not being able to attend to his duties on account of his work. Fred Dunkles has been made acting first sergeant. J. Leslie Elmer has left to join the 43d United States volunteers. Corporal A. V. D. Piper has been promoted. The list of non-commissioned officers now stands as follows: Acting first sergeant, Fred Dunklee; sergeants, Charles Davis, James Snilivan, George Whitney, A. V. D. Piper; quartermaster, sergeant, Fred Robinson; corporals, Ernest Waterman, Walter Cooley, Ethan Hescock, Curtis Robinson. new uniforms have been received, but they are not satisfactory and will be returned.

During the evening, however, a number of the Catholic Order of Foresters arrived carrying with them several gifts which were felicitiously presented by N. T. Ryan. Refreshments were served, and the evening was spent in a social way. About 30 persons were present. E. A. Hitchcock of Springfield, Mass. one of the gang of men employed in repairing the West River railroad bridge, was seriously injured Monday morning. A large stone was being hoisted when one of the wire cable guys snapped and one end of it struck Hitchcock across the shoulders, knocking him down. His collar bone was broken, one shoulder was dislocated and he was badly bruised about the head. He was brought to the railroad station and his injuries were dressed, after which he was sent to his home in Springfield.

Under the title, "Some of the Fruits of His Pen," Rev. Lewis Grout has compiled a list of his own published writings and it has been printed for private distribution The fact that the list numbers no less than 90 titles shows what a busy and dili gent life Mr. Grout has led, for the greater part of this writing was done while he was a missionary in Africa and a minister n active service in this country. Several of these works were of leading importance, notably his grammar of the Zulu language, published in 1859 during his residence in Africa, and the revision of that grammar undertaken by Mr. Grout in 1893 at the request of the American Board. He went from here to Winchester and later to Keene.

The committee of the Baptist church on entertainments met Monday at Gen. Estey's, and decided to arrange "An Evening with Mendelssohn." Prof. Cramer will talk about the great musician's life and his compositions. Two pianos, an organ and other musical instruments will be used in the entertainment, and there will be chorus, quartet, duet and solo singing. The entire evening will be devoted to the study of Mendelssohn. It is expected that this entertainment will be followed by others of a similar nature each devoted to a great composer. The hour for returning arrived much too soon for all who went.

The Cressy-Austin Wedding.

The rooms of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Mc. Lane in Crosby block were handsomely decorated with pink and white hydrangeas and clematis last Friday evening, on which occasion occurred the marriage of Mrs. McLane's brother, Fred Cressy, and Miss Mary Austin, two of Brattleboro's well known young people. Only the immediate relatives were present, the friends of the couple not being "let in" to the secret because of the desire to have the wedling as quiet as possible on account of the illness of Mr. Cressy's father, R. C. Cressy. Rev. Fred S. Walker of Wilmington performed the ceremony at 7:30 o'clock, bride wore a blue traveling dress. and Mrs. Cressy went north on the 10:10 train, and their departure was marked by a shower of flowers. They have visited this week at the home of Mrs. Cressy's mother in Barre, and at St. Johnsbury and Lyndonville. After their return they will live in Crosby block. Mrs. Cressy came to Brattleboro from West Berlin, near Montpeller, several years ago, after attending the seminary in Montpeller. She was formerly in the mil-linery department of Miss Belle H. Emer-son's store, and for the past two season's she has had a similar position in the store of Donnell & Davis. Mr. Cressy has lived in Brattleboro since his youth. He graduated from the High school in 1884. He was employed for a time in Boston and also in New Haven, and for several years was a clerk in the clothing store of Starkey & Wellman and later in the furnishing goods store of E. A. Starkey & Co. He was manager of Starkey & Co's. clothing store in Wilmington a year, and since then he has been in the employ of A. W. Childs & Co. of Brattleboro, state agents for the Travelers Insurance company.
